Re: United States v. Jon Horvath, S2 12 Cr. 121 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

The Court previously ordered that the Government provide a status update regarding the above-referenced defendant's cooperation. With our apologies for the lateness of this letter, the Government writes respectfully to advise the Court that the defendant's cooperation is ongoing. Moreover, to our knowledge, he continues to comply with all of his bail conditions.

Accordingly, with the consent of defense counsel, the Government respectfully requests that the defendant's sentencing be adjourned for at least six additional months. In the event there is a change in the status of the defendant's cooperation before such date, the Government will promptly notify the Court.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the Government shall submit a letter apprising the Court of the status of Defendant's cooperation by April 3, 2015.

Respectfully submitted,

PREET BHARARA
United States Attorney
